A Crank's Attempt to Kill Chairman Frick-Shot and Stabbed Him.

Pittsburg, July 23.—A desperate and almost successful attempt was made this afternoon to assassinate Henry Clay Frick, chairman of the Carnegie Steel Compay, limited. His assailant was Alexander Berkman, a Russian Jew, who came here with the evident intention of removing the man who has been the principal the forty men summonded from on the employers' side in the great struggle now going on between caywere all former members of the Bald ital and labor at Homestead.
